

Oakland Cemetery Daffodil Walk

Thursday March 8, 2018

10-11 AM

GCMGA's first field trip of 2018 will be an heirloom daffodil walk in historic Oakland Cemetery. The walk will be led by Sara Van Beck, regarded as one of the South's foremost daffodil authorities. Sara is author of "Daffodils in American Gardens, 1733-1940" and is past president of the Georgia Daffodil Society. She manages the historic daffodil program at Oakland. (Pictures from the Georgia Daffodil Society web site georgiadaffodilsociety.com.)

To reserve a spot for this field trip, please send an email to rpanetta@gmail.com. Include name, email address and cell phone number of those attending. The field trip is limited to GCMGA members only. The extension van is reserved, on a first request basis, for 8 passengers. Or, if you would like to carpool, please note in the email if you will drive or be a passenger. If driving, how many passengers you can take.

Address: 248 Oakland Ave. SE Atlanta, GA 30312

Web site: www.oaklandcemetery.com (has good directions)

Becky Panetta

2018 GCMGA Field Trip Chair